1. The service we provide

- 1.1 This Agreement applies to the Coutts Fixed Rate Cash ISA provided by Coutts & Co ('we', 'our' or 'us').
- 1.2 Coutts & Co is authorised by the Prudential Regulation Authority (PRA) and regulated by the Financial Conduct Authority (FCA) and the Prudential Regulation Authority. - 1.3 These Terms and Conditions, together with the Coutts Fixed Rate Cash ISA Application Form, the Coutts Private Client Core Terms, and the 'Important Information' booklet which we have given you, constitute the 'Agreement' between us and you for the provision of your Coutts Fixed Rate Cash ISA. Please read them carefully and retain them for future reference. These Terms and Conditions, the Coutts Fixed Rate Cash ISA Application Form and the Important Information booklet shall prevail over the Coutts Private Client Core Terms in the event of any inconsistency.

- 1.4 We have categorised you for the purposes of the FS Rules as a 'Retail client' (as defined in the FS Rules) which gives you the highest level of protection. We will provide the services under this Agreement on that basis.

- 1.5 You can find information about our interest rates by:
 - asking your private banker;
 - calling Coutts24;
 - visiting coutts.com;
 - logging into our digital services; or
 - referring to your account statement;

2. How we will run your Fixed Rate Cash ISA

- 2.1 When we accept your application, or if we have already accepted your application, we will run your ISA in the way we set out in this Agreement and in accordance with the Individual Savings Account Regulations 1998 as amended from time to time ('the ISA Regulations').
- 2.2 Subscriptions can only be made to an ISA in accordance with the annual subscription allowances set by HM Treasury, which may change from year to year, or by using an 'Additional Permitted Subscription' (which is an additional subscription which you can apply to make into an ISA following the death of your spouse or civil partner) and completing the relevant documentation. In the event of your spouse or civil partner's death on or after 6 April 2018, the Additional Permitted Subscription can be either the value of the deceased's ISA at their date of death or the point the ISA ceased to be a continuing account of a deceased investor. You may make several Additional Permitted Subscriptions within the timescales set out in the ISA Regulations. We will not accept an Additional Permitted Subscription where we know that the information you provide in the relevant documentation is false or where the requirements set out in the ISA Regulations are not satisfied.

- 2.3 Subscriptions (other than Additional Permitted Subscriptions) to your Coutts Fixed Rate Cash ISA may be made only from another Coutts bank account in your name. No payments from third parties will be accepted into your Coutts Fixed Rate Cash ISA.
 - 2.4 We shall on your behalf hold any cash under this Agreement in a cash deposit in your name. Cash that we hold on your behalf under this Agreement will be held as banker. It will not be held by us as trustee under the Client Money Rules (which are the rules of the FS Regulators that relate to the holding of money for clients in connection with certain investment businesses). This means that if we should fail (for example we were to go into administration), then the distribution provisions within the Client Money Rules will not apply to the money we hold for you under this Agreement, and you will not be entitled to share in any distribution made under those Rules. However, the protection under the Financial Services Compensation Scheme (as detailed in Term 15.3 of this Agreement) may still apply.
 - 2.5 You confirm that any information that you have provided to us is complete and correct. You agree to notify us promptly if there is any material change to any of that information, and to provide any other information that we reasonably request in order to comply with our duties. You understand that a failure to provide such information requested may mean that we are not able to correctly provide our services to you under this Agreement.
 - 2.6 We will tell you if your Fixed Rate Cash ISA has, or will, become void because we, or you, have failed to comply with the ISA Regulations. In such a case, we will continue to hold any cash subject to such other agreement that we have with you. If you fail to comply with the ISA Regulations, we may make a charge to you for voiding the Fixed Rate Cash ISA in accordance with our published charges. Any action taken whether by us or you will be subject to such deductions (if any) as we may require, to meet tax or other liabilities.
 - 2.7 The cash held in your Fixed Rate Cash ISA must remain in your beneficial ownership. This means it must belong to you at all times. You must not use the money within your Fixed Rate Cash ISA as security for a loan or create any legal charge over it.
 - 2.8 You are responsible for complying with all applicable taxes on your accounts. Any comments provided in respect of the tax treatment of ISAs or the applicable subscription limits are based on our general understanding of UK tax law and should not be construed as tax advice nor representations that you should rely upon.
